We hope you were able to join us on last Sunday, Sept. 22, as we began a series of Interim Events. These conversations are designed to help us get to know one another—and our parish—better as we begin the search for a new Rector.

After prayerful consideration, the Vestry has chosen a Discernment Committee to begin the search process. We ask that you pray for God's guidance as they begin their important work to identify our next spiritual and pastoral leader and to further the mission and ministry of Grace and Holy Trinity Church.

The members of the committee are:

Pem Hall, Chair
Julie Joyce
Alison Martin
Meredith McGuire
Marshall Morton
Nick Sollog
Fielding Williams
Harold Williams
Kim Vullo

The search for a new Rector is typically 12-16 months. Our Interim Rector, The Rev. Bill Queen, will continue his work with the parish and the staff to prepare us for our next Rector.

Thank you for your continued prayers and presence as the Discernment Committee begins its work. It's an exciting time to be at church—you could feel the energy in the Parish Hall last Sunday!

Darrell Alexander
Senior Warden

Thomas Ewers
Junior Warden
